suffering from a system of extortion practiced upon them, I write to you to place the facts before the public. 'essels arriving at this port have been, in many instances, plawfully compelled to pay a bonns of from $50 to $100 unlawfully compelled to pay a bonns of from $50 to $100 for towing and berthing, besides paying Harbor Master's fees. The Capitain of the Port has had the facts of these extertionate charges laid before him, but will not take action upon them. Charges against the officials, with proofs of these malteasances, have been preferred, with due formalities, to Gov. Hoffman, who promises to have the blackmallers brought to trial, but does nothing about it. Meanwhile, commerce suffers. Unable to obtain justice, we appeal to public sentiment to hasten the tardy steps of the Governor.
